TRIBUTE

FOOTS, A MAN AMONG MEN

In this world where righteousness and goodness of heart, are too often considered qualities which are things of the past, not to be found among most men of this generation, at best rare indeed, here is a man who exemplified these qualities throughout his life. "Foot's" word was his bond, and his word was good.

Foots carried himself with a quiet dignity, and was really loved, and truly respected by everyone who knew him. He never complained about his hand in life, but strived to help everyone he could, by both words spoken, and, deeds done. Foots considered no man beneath him nor above him. Secure in his identity, he walked through this life, a man among men.

Before Foots departed this life he made peace with God, in that he confessed Jesus as the Christ, thee only begotten son of the true and living God, and his faith in the fact that God did raise him from the dead, and, his faith in the wonder working power of the shed blood of Jesus . . . who is, King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

Obituary

THEODORE NATHANIEL WHITE was born October 8, 1937 in San Antonio, Texas to O. B. and Matilda White. The third of eleven children.

He attended Grant Elementary, Dunbar Jr. High and Phyllis Wheatley High School. He was brought up in the Rivas Street C.O.G.I.C. under the pastorage of the late Eld. Walter Jarvis.

He moved to Los Angeles in 1952 while his family united with 21st Street Temple C.O.G.I.C., under the leadership of the late Eld. David Saffold.

Theodore graduated from Fremont High School in 1954, found a job and began working. On July 21, 1957 he married Delores and two children were born to that union, Theodore Jr. and Roslyn.

He leaves to cherish his memories: a loving mother, Matilda White; one son, Theo Jr.; one daughter, Roslyn; three sisters, Mrs. Betty Ealy, Mrs. Doris Combs, Mrs. Warinetta Lockhart; five brothers, Louis Connie, Otis B. Jr., Rev. Arthur L., Anthony L., Wade's twin brothers preceded him in death, Harry and Larry in 1951.

He also leaves two uncles, H. L. Stigger of San Antonio, Willie D. Mosby of Kerrville, Texas; one great aunt, Gertie E. Roberson of San Diego; many nieces and nephews, relatives and friends. Sleep on Theodore and take your rest, we loved you, but God loved you best.
